THEATRICAL PERFORMANCES (581-3110):

Brigadoon -- Dec. 4 through 13, Fine Arts Theatre.

"Brigadoon," the haunting musical fantasy about a Scottish town that has gone to sleep and awakes for a single day once each hundred years, tells the tale of two Americans whose plane makes a sudden landing near a Scottish village -- a quaint place that appears on no maps. It is a community of idyllic peace where the inhabitants know no strife, and it comes to life just one day every century before dissolving back into the mist. It is an oasis of dreams, and the breaking of the peace by one disgruntled soul would suffice to make it disappear forever. From this legend is spun a tale of romance between one of the 20th-century Americans and a 17th-century girl -- 19 years of age.

Performances are at 7 p.m. Dec. 4, 5, 6, 11, 12, 13 and at 2 p.m. Dec. 7. Tickets are $9 for adults, $7 for senior citizens, faculty and staff, and $4.50 for students.
